What is the weather forecast for the wedding dates?

- Will there be AC/heaters/fans at the venue?
- Should I bring a light jacket or shawl for the evening events?
- Are there shaded areas if the afternoon events are outdoors?

What time will lunch/dinner be served?

- Will there be vegetarian, vegan, or Jain food options available?
- Is alcohol being served at the Sangeet/Reception?
- Are there specific dry events (like the morning Puja/Pheras)?
- I have a severe allergy; who should I notify?

Who is the "Main Problem Solver" for the Bride's side vs. the Groom's side? (Usually a cousin or sibling).

- Who is the contact for the Hotel Event Coordinator? (If a guest sees a spill or a bathroom issue).

What is the specific Hall Name for the Mayera (Groom) and Reetein (Bride)?

Will there be alcohol at the Sangeet/Wedding?" / "Is there an open bar?"

- Bot Response: "We've decided to keep all our wedding functions completely dry. We truly apologize if you were looking forward to a cocktail, but we promise to keep you 'high' on great music, incredible food, and all the love in the room! 🥂✨ We'll have plenty of delicious mocktails and refreshments flowing at The Lounge and at every event to keep the party going!"

The "Morning After" (The 7th) Breakfast

- You mentioned breakfast is included—what are the timings? (e.g., 7:30 AM to 10:30 AM?) Guests waking up after 2 AM Pheras will definitely want to know if they can sleep in and still catch a coffee.

4. The "Early Arrival" Problem

- If someone lands at 9:00 AM on the 5th, can they go to The Lounge for Maggi/Chai even if their room isn't ready until 1:00 PM? (I'd recommend saying Yes—it's a great way to keep them occupied!)

What happens during the Mayera? Do I need to bring anything?

The Mayera is a traditional ceremony where Surakshit's maternal uncles (mamas) and family arrive with gifts, clothes, and blessings for the groom and his mother. It's a heartwarming ritual celebrating the support of the maternal side of the family!

Is there an event for Shreyaa's side at the same time?"

- Answer: "Yes! While the Groom's side is celebrating the Mayera, Shreyaa's side will be gathered for the Reetein rituals. Both events will be held in separate halls at the InterContinental Jaipur.

What is the Reetein ceremony?" / "What happens during Shreyaa's event on the 5th?"

Bot Response: > "The Reetein involves the traditional pre-wedding rituals for Shreyaa and her family. It is a series of soulful customs and blessings that prepare the bride for her new journey.

What to expect: Lots of traditional songs, family bonding, and emotional moments. Just bring your best wishes (and maybe a tissue or two!).

Dress Code: Traditional Indian wear

User Question: "What happens at the Choorā ceremony?" / "Why is the Choorā so early?"

Bot Response: > "The Choorā Ceremony is one of the most significant moments for a bride! Shreyaa's maternal uncles (mamas) will gift her a set of red and white bangles (the Choorā) which are purified in milk and rose petals.

What to expect: This is a very auspicious and emotional ritual. Since it takes place at 9:00 AM, we recommend grabbing a quick coffee or tea from The Lounge before heading in!

Dress Code: Traditional morning wear (Light and comfortable for the Punjabi Carnival that follows at 11:00 AM).

The "Baraat" Distance: * Question: "How far is the Baraat walk?"

- Response Strategy: "It's a short, high-energy procession from the InterContinental gate to Atlantiis Jaipur—shuttle cars are also on standby for anyone who prefers to ride!"

I forgot my bindi/safety pins/hairpins!"

- SuSh Response: "Check the 'Wedding Emergency Kit' at The Lounge. We've stocked it with all the tiny essentials you might have missed!"

Can I leave my bags at the reception if I check out at 10 AM but my flight is at 6 PM?"

- SuSh Response: "Absolutely! The InterContinental Front Desk will safely store your luggage so you can enjoy your final breakfast and explore Jaipur before your flight.

I'm here alone—where is everyone hanging out?"

- SuSh Response: "The 24/7 Lounge is the unofficial headquarters! You'll almost always find family and friends there grabbing Maggi or Chai.

Will it be cold during the 2 AM Pheras?"

- SuSh Response: "Jaipur nights can get chilly! While the Pheras at Atlantiis will be cozy, we recommend carrying a shawl or jacket. We'll also have hot tea/coffee flowing to keep you warm!"

Which floor is the Convergence Ballroom on?"

- SuSh Response: "It's on the Ground Floor of the InterContinental. Just follow the music (and the beautifully dressed people)!"

- "Where is the entrance for the Baraat?"

- SuSh Response: "The Baraat will assemble at the Main Porch of the InterContinental at 8:00 PM before we dance our way across to Atlantiis!"

2. The "Safety & Security" Questions

- SuSh Response: "Yes, every room at the InterContinental is equipped with a digital safe. We highly recommend keeping your valuables locked away when you're out at the functions."

- "What if I lose my room key?"

- SuSh Response: "Don't worry! Just head to the Front Desk with your ID, and they will issue you a new one in minutes."

3. The "Beauty Emergency" Questions

- "Is there a parlor or salon inside the hotel?"

- SuSh Response: "Yes, the InterContinental has an in-house salon. However, they get very busy during weddings, so we recommend booking your slot at least 4 hours in advance"

Can I get a late check-out on the 7th?"

- SuSh Response: "Standard check-out is 10:00 AM to allow the hotel to prepare for new guests. If you have a very late flight, please speak to the Front Desk directly to see if they can hold your luggage in their secure storage."

- "How long does it take to get to the Jaipur Airport (JAI)?"

- SuSh Response: "It typically takes 15–20 minutes, but we recommend leaving 45 minutes before your check-in time to account for Jaipur traffic!"

5. The "I Missed It" Questions

- "I missed the Welcome Lunch, can I still get food?"

- SuSh Response: "Of course! While the main buffet might be closed, The Lounge is open 24/7 with Maggi and snacks, or you can order from the hotel's In-Room Dining menu."

Is the Phera ceremony mandatory for all guests?"

- SuSh Response: "The Pheras are the most sacred part of the wedding! While we would love for everyone to witness Shreyaa and Surakshit's final vows at 2:00 AM, we understand if the little ones or elders need to retire early."

What happens if it rains during the outdoor events?"

- SuSh Response: "Don't worry, we have a 'Plan B'! If the weather doesn't play along, ceremonies will move to the beautiful indoor ballrooms at the InterContinental or Atlantiis."

4. The "Payment" Questions

- "Do I have to pay for my laundry or room service?"

- SuSh Response: "While your stay and all wedding meals are on us, personal extras like In-Room Dining, Mini-Bar, Laundry, or Spa services will be charged to your room and should be settled at the Front Desk during check-out."

- User Question: "Should we give cash to the Dholis (drummers) or dancers?"
- Bot Response: "While the entertainers are fully paid for, if you feel the festive spirit and want to do a 'Vaarna' (circling money over the couple's heads for good luck) and give it to the Dholis, you are welcome to! However, it is completely optional."

User Question: "I am sharing a room with my cousins. Can we get multiple keys?"

- Bot Response: "Absolutely. When you check in, just ask the Front Desk to program an extra key card for your roommates so nobody gets locked out after the late-night Pheras!"
- User Question: "I got locked out of my room and my roommate is asleep inside!"

4. Jaipur Environment & Health (The Elements)

- Bot Response: "The hotel conducts regular pest control, but since Atlantiis has beautiful open areas, we will have mosquito repellent sprays and patches available near the entrance just in case!"
- User Question: "The Jaipur air is making my throat scratchy/skin dry!"
- Bot Response: "Welcome to Rajasthan! If the dry weather gets to you, grab a soothing hot honey-ginger tea from The Lounge. You can also request a room humidifier from Housekeeping!"

5. The "Irish Exit" (Leaving Early)

- User Question: "I have an early morning flight on the 7th and need to sleep before the 2 AM Pheras end. Is it rude to leave?"
- Bot Response: "Shreyaa and Surakshit completely understand! Please give them your blessings during the Varmala or Dinner earlier in the evening. You can quietly slip away to your room whenever you need to—just don't forget to coordinate your early morning cab with our Transport Manager!"

6. The "Unplanned Additions"

- User Question: "Can I bring my pet dog/cat?"
- Bot Response: "As much as we love furry friends, the wedding venues and hotels have a strict no-pet policy. Please make sure they are well taken care of at home!"
- User Question: "My friend lives in Jaipur, can they drop by to say hi to me?"

- Bot Response: "Because this is a private, catered event with strict hotel security, only registered wedding guests are allowed into the venues and event halls. You are welcome to meet local friends outside the hotel premises during your free time!"
